On November 14, 2003, defendant's probation officer reported that she had violated the terms of supervised release by using cocaine. She was reprimanded, put in a structured testing program, referred for a professional assessment, counseling and an intensive outpatient treatment program. No further action was taken at the time. (Dkt. 343).

On January 8, 2004, the defendant admitted to violating the conditions of supervised release by using cocaine on August 6, 2003, October 16, 2003, and December 11, 2003. (Dkt. 365). The court continued the defendant on supervised release. (Dkt. 419).

In an application dated March 10, 2006 (Dkt 505), U.S. Probation Officer Michael J. Larson alleged the following violations of the conditions of probation:

- 1. Failing to notify the probation officer within seventy-two hours of being arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer on September 16, 2005 and November 6, 2005 in violation of standard condition number eleven.
- 2. Failing to submit a truthful and complete written report within the first five days of each month for February 2006, in violation of standard condition number two.

- 4. Driving Under the Influence on or about March 8, 2006 in violation of Section 46.61.502 of the Revised Code of Washington; and the mandatory condition requiring she not commit another federal, state or local crime.

7. Resisting Arrest on or about March 8, 2006 in violation of Section 9A.76.040 or the Revised Code of Washington, and the mandatory condition requiring she not commit another federal, state or local crime.

Defendant was advised in full as to those charges and as to her constitutional rights.

Defendant admitted the alleged violations and waived any evidentiary hearing as to whether they occurred.

I therefore recommend the Court find defendant violated her supervised release as alleged, and that the Court conduct a hearing limited to the issue of disposition. The next hearing will be set before Judge Coughenour.

Pending a final determination by the Court, defendant has been detained.
